

YARRAVILLE | SUNDAY OCTOBER 7 | 2018

SOUTHERN REGIONAL FESTIVAL

The Southern Regional Festival, hosted by Area D, is an opportunity for all interested members in the Southern Region to freely and openly explore our Declaration of Unity: specifically, how Alcoholics Anonymous can remain unified and relevant into the future.

PROGRAM:

10:00 AM: DIGITISING A.A - How technological challenges could impact A.A. now and into the future.

11:15 AM: A.A. NEXT GENERATION – Growing our membership and welcoming more ‘A.A. friends’ via public information.

12:15PM: LUNCH – FEAST AT THE FESTIVAL!

1:15PM: A VISION FOR US – The current and potential future structure of A.A. Do we need to change?

2:30PM: HOW A GROUP CARES FOR ITS MEMBERS – The power of the Group Conscience in making decisions that benefit member safety and well-being.

3:45PM: INTO ACTION - How we can make change in A.A. via the power and process of conference topics.

Each of the day's 5 interactive sessions will explore a challenge we face moving forward. Volunteers are required to assist on the day in a variety of areas including catering, greeting, registration and more

To register your attendance (for catering) or to let us know you can help out, email: srfestival2018@gmail.com

FOR FUN & FOR FREE!
