

Tradition 5

Each group has but one primary purpose – to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers

National AA PI&CPC* Forum 2019

* Public Information and Co-Operation with Professionals in the Community

13-14 September

Dougherty Community Centre
7 Victor St., Chatswood NSW

FREE EVENT

Limited numbers

Bookings essential

www.eventbrite.com.au or <https://bit.ly/2M1gzMr>

Or call Chris 0409 952 863 or John 0419 219 657

For more info visit Area E website: areaeraa.info

Friday 13 September 2019

OPEN MEETING for Public and Professionals

6.00 – 6.30 Welcome Attendees

6.30 – 7.20 Shares by Members of AA and AlAnon

7.20 – 7.40 Break

7.40 – 8.25 Speakers from the Fields of Medicine, Psychology and Psychiatry

8.25 – 9.00 Farewell and opportunity for informal question time

Saturday 14 September 2019

Morning session

8.00 – 8.30 Registrations

8.30 – 8.40 Opening

8.40 – 9.40 Service

9.40 – 9.50 Short break

9.50 – 11.20 Opportunities for Communicating with Professionals in the Community, e.g., Remote Communities (including Tag Alongs), Aged Care Facilities, Schools, Medical Centres, Police

11.20 – 11.30 Short break

11.30 – 12.15 Speaking at non-AA meetings

12.15 – 1.15 LUNCH

Afternoon session

1.15 – 2.15 Anonymity (including Social Media issues)

2.15 – 2.25 Break

2.25 – 3.35 Presentation Summary of PI&CPC Co-ordinators Reports and Discussion How can Areas, Districts and CSOs work together more effectively

3.35 – 3.55 Break

3.55 – 4.55 Continuation of PI&CPC Action Session

4.55 – 5.05 Short break

5.05 – 5.55 Digital opportunities for PI&CPC Service Action

5.55 – 6.00 Closure

6.00 – 7.00 Farewell and opportunity for informal question time